It has the confidence of the Government and all the facilities from it that military exigencles all the facilities from it that military exigencies will allow.

He affairs are managed by business men who give their services. Railroads and telegrams are free to it; the Bible Society gives its publications; but religious reading matter must be purchased, and the demand is far beyond the ability of the Commission to meet it.

The weath of the Commission are men to go as delegates; stores to be distributed by them—money to purchase reading matter.

The aim is to have no large balance in the Treasury, but to do at all times what the current contributions shall allow, there being no extensive and complicated system of agencies that a change would surlously affect.

Money and Stores may be sent to George H. Sylare, 11 Bank Street, Philadelphia.

In New England, money may be sent to Joseph Story, 112 Tremont Street; Stores to L. P. Royland, 13 Tremont Street; Stores to L. P. Royland, 5 Tremont Temple; Letters to Charles Demond, 4 Court Street, all in Boston.
